

WORKSHOP OFFER

Workshops for multilingual universities and teaching teams

Research-informed, participatory sessions for faculty, graduate students, and teaching teams. Every format is adapted to the institution and ends with a usable teaching artifact, facilitation decision, or implementation plan.

Assistant Professor
Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University

Engagement formats

90 MIN | FOCUSED SESSION

One teaching problem, a small set of usable principles, and an individual action plan. Suitable for faculty meetings, CTL programmes, and conferences.

HALF DAY | DESIGN LAB

Participants bring a real lesson, activity, or assessment and leave with a revised version tested through peer review and facilitation rehearsal.

SERIES | PRE-FD

A sequenced programme for graduate students or early-career faculty: outcomes, alignment, activity design, facilitation, feedback, and reflection.

SIGNATURE TOPICS

- Intercultural communication in the classroom
- Active learning and teaching design
- AI, criticality, and higher education
- Pre-FD for graduate students
- Feedback, reflection, and learning evidence
- Games and media as cultural systems

WHAT PARTICIPANTS PRODUCE

One-page class outline

Aligned activity plan with instructions and timing

Facilitation rehearsal and peer feedback

A next-step plan for implementation

A workshop should change what participants can do next.

Email: seishunamigo@gmail.com | LinkedIn: linkedin.com/in/michalmmazur

michalmmazur